

RELEASE: 101-66

NURSING SCHOOL INSTRUCTOR RECEIVES UNICEF FELLOWSHIP

Saipan, Mariana Islands, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands
June 28 . . . Mrs. Elizabeth F. Camacho, registered nurse and instructor at the Trust Territory School of Nursing has been awarded a UNICEF (United Nations Children's Fund) Fellowship to attend a 10-month World Health Organization sponsored course in public health given at the All-India Institute of Hygiene-Public Health in Calcutta, according to Assistant Commissioner for Community Services James E. Hawkins.

Mrs. Camacho, a native of Fiji, came to the Territory in 1963 with her husband, Dr. Carlos Camacho, a medical officer at the Dr. Torres Hospital in Saipan. She is graduate of the Central Nursing School in Suva, Fiji, and has had special training in midwifery. She has taught at the Nursing School since 1963.

###

PIO/2148