

Dear Senator Nuuan:

On my return from Texas, Mr. McPherson presented to me the gifts which you had left in his care. These examples of the traditional art and culture of the people of the Yap District are greatly appreciated and will be treasured. Please extend to the people of the District my gratitude and thanks.

Sincerely,

Mr. Harry C. McPherson
Special Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McPherson:

In accordance with Miss McCawley's request of July 26, enclosed is a draft "thank you" note from the President to Mr. Francis Nuuan of Yap, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. Mr. Nuuan is one of the two Senators from the Yap District serving in the Congress of Micronesia. The Congress is in session on Saipan, a session which will continue until mid-August, and we, therefore, suggest the President's letter be airmailed to him there.

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd.) John J. Kirwan

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

At Interior's request I was visited by the Honorable Francis Nuuan, a Senator in the Micronesian Congress. He brought with him several gifts for the President, from his home island of Yap.

The gifts are described on the attached sheet.

I expressed the President's gratitude for the gifts, and his hopes for the people of the Trust Territories.

Harry C. McPherson, Jr.
Special Counsel to the President
