token of the city's friendship and hospitality to the Micronesians there.

The Mayor of Key West, the Honorable Kermit Lewin, and a representative of the Key West Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Merville Rosam III, made the formal presentation to the Micronesian language and culture informants.

Marshalls

In a joint letter from the Micronesian informants to the Congress of Micronesia, signed by Johnny Silk (Special Advisor); William Allen (Special Advisor); Joseph deBrum (Marshalls); Alexius Luzama (Ponape); Neri Oneitam (Truk); Felipe Ruak (Marianas), Seraphim Kuguy (Yap) and Ichiro Moros (Palau), the Micronesian informants describe as "remarkable indeed" the friendship and hospitality the people of Key West have thus
