TRUKESE RECEIVES FINAL E-WC SCHOLARSHIP FOR 1967

Saipan, Mariana Islands, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, Apr. 24 . . . The final East-West Center scholarship granted to students from the Trust Territory for study toward a degree in arts and sciences has been awarded to a Trukese, Mr. Tosiwo Nakayama. He will begin his college work at the Center this September.

Truk

Mr. Nakayama is President of the Senate of the Congress of Micronesia, and also Truk Assistant District Administrator for Public Affairs. He will join two other Micronesians, from Saipan and Kusaie, who were also selected as winners of scholarships. Two scholarships will not be awarded for 1967-68.

Marshalls

Each year the East-West Center offers a maximum of five college scholarships to the Trust Territory for persons wishing to work toward a college degree. The scholarships are renewable if the student is doing acceptable work according to the college's standards.

Yap

As part of the University of Hawaii, the Center requires that students meet entrance qualifications and standards of the University.

Seven students from the Trust Territory are presently on such scholarships.
