Dear Governor Evans:

I am sorry to have missed you when you were in Washington late last month. Although I was not onboard for the European trip, I must admit to being rather a recluse, having engulfed myself in meetings and staff work during the President's absence.

I am delighted to know of your enthusiastic salute to John Hayden for High Commissioner of the Trust Territory, as well as the endorsements of other Washington State luminaries, and will pass along your comments to those most directly involved in such a selection. You may be sure that your recommendation will weigh heavily in the consideration.

With cordial regard,

Sincerely,

Bryce N. Harlow
Assistant to the President

Honorable Daniel J. Evans
