THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

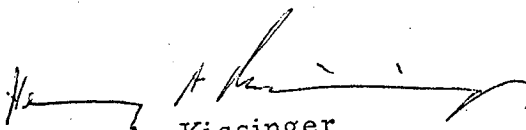

December 3, 1969

Dear Mr. Fox:

Thank you for your letter of November 4 suggesting a conversation on Micronesia.

I am afraid that time pressures are such that I will not be able to see you personally. I am aware of your experience on Micronesia, however, and I would be most appreciative if you would jot down your thinking as to where we stand and where we should go from here.

Best regards,

Henry A. Kissinger
