

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

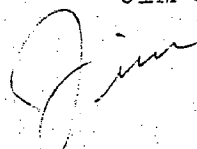

2/23/72

Secretariat:

Sec. Morton's request is OBE.

It was handled by a series of telephone discussions with Fred Radewagen of Morton's office. I informed Radewagen of the President's plans to stop at Guam and invited him to call Dewey Clower, the WH advance man at Guam. Radewagen did so and together they arranged for the participation of Guamanian and Micronesian leaders in the arrival ceremonies at the Guam airport. Radewagen told me it was not necessary to reply to Sec. Morton's ^{letter} since his request was taken care of.
