

CONFIDENTIAL

MEETING WITH MARSHALL GREEN - January 11, 1973

-Purpose: Up date M. Green on what happened last month.

- Two missions

1. Open Marianas talks
2. Explore JDSC views
 - Post election uncertainties
 - Palau land declaration

- After Saipan two trips

- FHW to Palau
- JMW and MVT to Eastern Districts

-Marianas successful

- ceremonial
- Proof of serious intent to proceed separately
- Permanent and close association
- Problems
- Political Status
- Commonwealth, Territory, other - tilt
- Minority influences
- Jap influence

-Land

- Military - Tinian
- Civilian
- Public lands
- alienation

DECLASSIFIED
E.O. 12958, Sec. 3.5
State Dept. Guidelines
By HR, NARA, Date 9/21/99

-Finance and Economics

- Program benefits
- Fringe benefits
- Military benefits
- Need for economist

- Transition

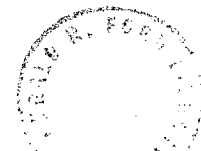

- COM influence
- Separate administration
- Political education
- U.N. visiting mission

- Next Steps

- Irwin memo of December 26, 1972
- Deadlines - Feb 15 and April Meeting
- Congressional consultation

- Micronesian Negotiations

- 7th Round - yes or no
- Independence option
- Differing agency views
- White House views
- Rush views
- Salii Discussions
- Alternatives
- COM discussion
- Priority to internal government and Constitutional Convention.
- Land negotiations with Districts

Warnke discussion of Compact - May

- Palau Land

- Declaration unrepresentative
- FHW trip with Salii - Talks and radio
- Misapprehensions and untruths
- Deal on return of public land?
- Tendency to say what people want to hear
- Latest on Reklai and Ibedul.
- Palau independence

-Next steps

- Irwins memo
- JFSC or not
- Compact or not
- Independence
- Fragmentation

-Schedule - March 1, 1973

-Long Term Study

- Nov 22 luncheon
- Morton's views
- Defense needs in Pacific and negotiations first
- Objectives
- HICOM
- Fragmentation
- Independence
- Program responsiveness
- Intelligence
- Political education

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(continued -Long Term Study)

- Economics
- Role of Japan
- Working group terms of reference
 - Need for economists
- Schedule of activities -
 - U.N. VM
 - T'angs visit
 - New HICOM
 - Congressional Consultations

Photocopy from Gerald R. Ford Library

