MEETING: An opportunity for Ambassador Haydn Williams to pay a farewell courtesy call on the President.

DATE: At President's earliest convenience prior to July 31, 1976

PURPOSE: To allow Ambassador Williams to pay a farewell call and have a photo taken with the President in the Oval Office.

FORMAT: The Oval Office - 5 minutes

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Ambassador Haydn Williams
Bob Wolthuis (staff)
General Scowcroft

TALKING POINTS: NSC

PRESS COVERAGE: White House Photo Only

RECOMMEND: Bob Wolthuis and Brent Scowcroft

BACKGROUND: 1. Ambassador Williams successfully completed the negotiations on the Mariana Covenant. He has resigned his post as the President's Personal Representative for Future Political Status Negotiations with the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands effective July 31, 1976.

2. When the President signed the Mariana Covenant in March there was not sufficient time to take separate photos in the Oval Office. Ambassador Williams would very much like to have a few minutes to make a farewell call and have a picture taken with the President.
