

 Reproduced at the Ronald Reagan Library

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 11, 1987

Dear Janet:

It is with a sense of regret and of major accomplishment that I accept your resignation as High Commissioner of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

The ideals of freedom and democracy, for which this Nation so fervently strives, have been realized in the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands through your tireless efforts and steadfast dedication. I am certain that in the years ahead you will be able to look back with great pride on your role in this major achievement.

Janet, you have my tremendous gratitude and appreciation for your long-standing support, and I am confident that I can speak for all Americans in extending thanks for your dedicated public service.

Nancy joins me in offering our best wishes for every future success.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Janet J. McCoy
High Commissioner of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands
Saipan, CM 96950